FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Year 10 Work Experience Week
As part of our school’s commitment to preparing our students for their future career we have this year introduced a Work Experience Week for all Year 10 students. As we are aware that not all students move directly to the workforce following successful completion of their QCE and graduating from high school we are running a differentiated program. Students have the option to complete a week of traditional work experience and we thank all local employers for assisting with this. Students who are progressing well academically and intend to study immediately post school will be involved in a series of campus tours to local university and TAFE colleges. Our final program is school based and will look at developing students’ work readiness skills. I would like to thank Ms Romanet, Ms Hargrave and Mr Pearce for their work in developing these programs and I look forward to our Year 10 students developing very specific SET plans following this excellent opportunity that they have next week. The school term for Year 10 will conclude with the end of this program on Friday June 25.

Reporting – move to electronic delivery of school reports
As outlined in our last newsletter, Semester Reports will be sent out in the first week of next term, they will be mailed out as well as emailed to all parents with email addresses listed. These report cards will be a summary of your child’s achievements this semester and will include not only grades for Achievement, Industry and Behaviour but also specific comments. As part of the transition we will both mail and email report cards this Semester and for the remaining two reporting periods of the year we will only be sending report cards via email.
If you do not have a recorded email address with the school or the email report is not delivered we will continue to mail home report cards in this instance. The QParents App which is now available to all parents of Elanora SHS will also allow parents to access report cards electronically. If you have not yet signed up, I encourage you to do so – simply contact your friendly office staff and they will take you through the process.

Are you On Target?
Our school has 5 key targets in literacy, numeracy, attendance, submission and pass rates that can be applied to every student, class, faculty, year level and the whole school. Meeting these targets clearly indicates that students will attain the final school qualification – the QCE – but also states to prospective employers that this student is literate, numerate, completes all set tasks and has attended at least 95% of their required lessons. Commencing at this report card we have acknowledged all students who have contributed positively to our targets by placing a sticker on their report card. We will also be acknowledging students through our Term Awards system which has been kindly supported by Zarraffa’s Palm Beach. Well done to all those who have been recognised.

Career Expo and On Target Interviews
Our Career and Subject Selection Expo will be held on Tuesday August 4, the program and list of exhibitors will be included with the report mailout. This Expo is a one stop shop for all school and post school options and I strongly encourage all students and parents to attend. A reminder that our school will also be hosting our second On Target interviews on Tuesday August 18 in which every student and parent will have a one on one interview with a member of our teaching staff to look at the individual student’s performance, the individual students career aspirations and planning the steps to achieve this career goal. Booking information for On Target Interviews will be sent home very early next term. A reminder also that there will be no classes scheduled on Tuesday August 18 due to On Target Interviews – please place both these dates in your diary.

Keep a watch on our school these holidays
With the holidays fast approaching, we need you to look out for after-hours crime in our school. If you see something suspicious, please don’t attempt to intervene. Call School Watch on 13 17 88 and let the local police or State Government Protective Security Service deal with the matter.
The School Watch program is a partnership between the Department of Education and Training, the Queensland Police Service and the State Government Protective Security Service. It aims to reduce vandalism, theft and arson in Queensland schools.
Keep the number handy and let’s work together to help create a safer school community.

Year 7 2016
Following our Year 7 BYOD and General Enrolment evening on Monday June 1 which provided parents and students with the opportunity to register for our 2016 BYOD program, our first class is nearly full. Our very popular ACE program Round 2 testing has been completed this week, the individual student career aspirations and planning the steps to achieve this career goal. Booking information for On Target Interviews will be sent home very early next term. A reminder also that there will be no classes scheduled on Tuesday August 18 due to On Target Interviews – please place both these dates in your diary.

Parental Involvement – P & C AGM - Wednesday July 22 at 6.00pm
Following our last P & C meeting we have agreed to trial a later start time for our next meeting. If you are interested in joining the P & C and contributing to the future of our school, please come along to our next meeting on Wednesday July 22 at 6.00pm in the staff common room.
Have a great break, the last day of school is Thursday June 24 for Years 11 and 12; and Friday June 25 for Years 7,8 and 9.

Yours in Education

ESHS NEWS
Leo Club:
The Elanora State High School Leo Club is now operational. We would like to thank the Tallebudgera Lions Club for their sponsorship and on-going support. Congratulations to the following people who were elected as office bearers: Tayla Firkin (President), Erin Logan (Vice-President), Anthea Young (Secretary), Ellie Ritchie (Treasurer). Other leadership positions will open up within the Leo Club in the near future and as the club grows. I’m hoping that those students who were unsuccessful in their nominations for the above positions will apply for these new positions. It was encouraging to see so many students willing to step up.

A preliminary meeting of Office Bearers and Lions Club personnel will be held on Thursday 25 June. The first official meeting of the Leo Club will then be held on Thursday 23 July with the Charter taking place on Thursday 6 August. Meetings will be held on a fortnightly basis. The members of the Leo Club are excited about working on projects within the Elanora community and beyond. Leadership, Experience and Opportunity – what a guideline!

The portal allows you to securely access information about your child and to communicate directly with your child’s school. Over time, QParents will become an integral part of how we communicate with parents. Get on board now to enjoy the ease and convenience that QParents offers. Year 10 Your Future How Program—A reminder to all Year 10 students.

With under a week remaining before ‘Your Future How Program’ 22nd to 26th June 2015 begins it is fantastic to see so many students returning their paperwork for their work placements or the university visits. Students have found placements in journalism, science, real estate, media, hairdressing, retail, hospitality, building, automotive and many more.

Parents and students are reminded that all the correct signed paperwork for the different programs must be returned to school prior to students doing their work placements or university visits.

No paperwork = no placement.

Students who choose to not participate in Programs A or B will be required to attend school for the week 22nd to 26th June 2015. These students will participate in Program C ‘Your Place in the World’.

If there are any employers wishing to participate in this program the forms can be located on our website. The Industry Liaison Officer can be contacted by telephoning 55 684310 or fax 55 348332 or email jharg15@eq.edu.au.

This program includes:
- Understanding of the mandatory requirements of occupational health and safety
- Reading, interpreting and measuring techniques as apply in the various Electrotechnology work functions
- The use of drawings, diagrams, cable schedules, standards, codes and specifications as they apply to the various Electrotechnology work functions
- The use of routine tools, equipment and personnel protective equipment required to do work in the energy sector environment
- Undertake scheduled routine work activities in the energy sector in an agreed time, to a quality standard and with a minimum of waste

Automotive and Engineering Information Session

Can’t wait to begin your career as a motor mechanic? Do you want to work in the engineering or mining sector? Attend a free information session at TAFE Queensland Gold Coast to discuss your career pathways for these industries.

Enrolments are now open for programs starting on Monday 13 July 2015.

UAR0101 Certificate II in Automotive Vehicle Preparation is designed as a transition to employment and as an introduction to the automotive trade area. In this course you’ll learn the basics of motor mechanics including maintenance and service procedures, workplace safety and electrical fundamentals. Topics include engines, maintenance and service procedures, workplace safety, tools and equipment, service brakes, cooling systems, fuel systems, service batteries and electrical fundamentals.

MMA0410 Certificate III in Engineering Pathways.
This qualification develops trade-like skills. As an example, the outcome level of welding skills from this qualification is not about learning trade-level welding theory and practice, it is about being introduced to welding, how it can be used to join metal and having the opportunity to weld some metal together. Similarly with machining, the outcome is about something being produced on a lathe etc., not the theory and practice of machining. The focus is on using engineering tools and equipment to produce or modify objects.

Designed to get you started on your career path, successful completion of these programs will give you credits towards a First Year Apprenticeship in your respective trade.

POSITIVEnig POINTS PROGRAM

Elanora SHS is on a mission for every staff member to find 100 positive one percenters each week. These are the everyday great things our students your children are doing in class and the playground. The student who receives the most points each week get a McDonald’s voucher and the staff member who allocates the most points receives a Zarrafa’s coffee voucher. Also the top 30 students each week get a free barbeque cooked by Andrew Pearce (year 10 Co), Dave Quack (chaplain) and special guests. So far Elanora students have received 2000 points this semester!

Congrat’s to the following students who now receive a free BBQ outside year co’s office.

IMPORTANT NOTICE—CARPARK

Please refrain from driving into the school to drop off or collect your child/ren. Parents who are doing the wrong thing and driving into the carpark could be responsible for causing a child to be hit by a car or causing an accident with a staff member’s car. You can pick up your child/ren on any of the roads that surround the school—they can easily walk to you. If this situation doesn’t improve we will be forced to spend money on a boom gate, money that could be better spent on other things. Our students safety is paramount.

SCIENCE QUIZ

Congratulations to Isobelle Gapp from Year 10 and Ryan Malizis from Year 11 the winners of the past fortnight quiz. GUIDANCE OFFICER NEWS

Information comes to me on a daily basis from a wide range of sources; information aimed at helping students to make good decisions about their future. There is certainly no shortage of data, the difficulty lies in ensuring the students and their parents/carers have access to it. With this in mind, information is collated and published in the ‘Current News’ (CN).

The CN includes information about coming events, financial issues, employment opportunities, tertiary courses and much more. It is essential reading, particularly for senior students, to ensure they keep up to date with current issues and opportunities.

CN is available on a regular basis from the school web site. Click on the link below to find the latest edition.

TECH ADVICE FOR PARENTS AND TEENS
To parents and teenagers. Technology is essential in today’s educational system. Whilst it has many benefits it also presents opportunities that us parents were never faced with. It would be very difficult to take part in our present education system without allowing access to current technology so the key is to find a balance. In my experience allowing children unsupervised access to technology is asking for trouble, REGARDLESS of how much you may trust them, or have told them. Their maturity affects their ability to make reasonable decisions especially when unsupervised or without instruction.

I encourage you to view the following video produced by the Australian Federal Police entitled ‘Megan’s Story’ by clicking this link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DwKgg35YbC4
Talk to your children about this and ask what their thoughts are. Under current legislation taking a sexual photo or video of yourself is ‘creating child exploitation material’, sending it is ‘distributing child exploitation material’ and keeping it on your phone or computer is ‘possessing child exploitation material’. Remember ‘Be careful what you put on the internet, you can’t take it back, it’s out there forever’.

For more resources go to http://www.afp.gov.au/what-we-do/campaigns/thinkuknow where you will find resources for parents, teachers and students 11-17.

FREE ONLINE PARENTING PROGRAM FOR PARENTS OF 12 TO 15 YEAR OLDS

Want to know what you can do to raise a resilient teenager?

Parents can play an important role in protecting their teenagers from mental health problems. It can be difficult to know whether a change in a teenager’s behaviour is due to depression or anxiety, or is part of normal adolescent development.

Researchers from Monash University and the University of Melbourne have developed a new online parenting program designed to empower parents to make sense of adolescence and parent their teenager with confidence. The program offers practical strategies that parents can use to support their teenager’s mental health.

If you are a parent or guardian of a child aged 12 to 15, you may be eligible to participate in a free trial of the program. Participation will take a few hours of yours and your child’s time, over 3 to 12 months. Both you and your child will be reimbursed for your time.

Please note, as the program is designed to prevent depression and anxiety problems, researchers are looking for parents of teenagers who do not have any current mental health difficulties.

How do I find out more?
To find out more, or to register to participate, please go to www.parentingstrategies.net/ depression/brief intervention.
For further details, you can contact the researchers at med.parentingstrategies@monash.edu or on (03) 9905 1256.

On Tuesday the 9th June I had the pleasure of accompanying both Jazmyn McLean (year 8) and Zac Hudson (year 9) to the GC2018 Schools Connect launch. This function included two representative students from 112 schools. The launch of the commonwealth games for schools was held at Metricon Stadium at Carrara from 6:30am until 9:00am.

The students were entertained by Andrew Baildon (former Olympic swimmer) as MC, followed by speeches from Kate Jones (Minister for Education and Minister for Tourism, Major Events, Small Business and the Commonwealth Games) and local council. A short promotional clip was shown and insight into how we were the successful bidding country for 2018.

Elanora will be appointed a sister country from the Commonwealth, to connect with and learn about. Once we know more we will embed into our learning in the lead up to the games. With some luck we might hope to see athletes visit our campus in the coming years. Both Jazmyn and Zac thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity and were fortunate enough to get a photo with our minister for Education, Kate Jones.

UNIFORM

There has been an increase over the last two weeks in the number of students wearing non-school jumpers - particularly hoodies. Regardless of whether students have a note, exams or it is a cold day they are not allowed to wear hoodies. Black and navy blue tracksuit pants and shorts with white stripes down the side are not acceptable either. Even with a note. Students will be sent to the Dean Of Student’s office. The uniform shop now has jumpers in stock.

It is a requirement under the Queensland Education Provisions Act 2006, that parents and carers ensure children of compulsory school age are in attendance at school every day. Some circumstances, such as illness, may prevent 100% attendance but all parents should be aiming for maximum school attendance for their child/ren.
