  - Ignoring and persistent exclusion from friendship circles, social exclusion
- Cyber
  - Deliberate inappropriate use of mobile phones text messaging and internet communications

These actions demonstrate there has been a breakdown in relationships between students.

When bullying occurs what should be done?

By the students

- Initially use appropriate responses to solve the problem (e.g. walk away and report the incident)
- Seek intervention by reporting bullying to a teacher, support staff or parent
- Demonstrate positive bystander behaviour and tell a teacher, support staff or parent if they see another student being bullied
- Never ignore the situation

By the parent

- Model appropriate behaviour at all times
- Support the school’s philosophy
- Watch for signs that your child may be being bullied (e.g. a change in behaviour at home)
- Encourage your child to adopt the anti-bullying strategies taught at school
- Instruct your child to immediately tell a teacher or support staff they are being bullied
- Inform the school immediately of any suspected bullying

By staff

- Model appropriate behaviour at all times
- Reassure the individual that bullying is unacceptable
- Listen to the student and ask what you can do to help
- Act appropriately to the student’s concern by intervening at the appropriate level
- Provide advice, intervene and monitor

Who Can Help?

All students are expected to accept the opportunity to learn and not distract others from learning. However, not one of us is on our own. At Elanora people are available to help. Outside assistance can be recommended if required.
