Parents, we believe it is the student's responsibility to see their uniform is ready for school. They are old enough to wash and iron them if something prevents you from doing so.

On the rare occasion that a student is unable to be correctly attired, they are required to follow the Out of Uniform Procedure. For infringements of the school uniform code the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 allows schools with dress codes like Elanora State High School to:

- Impose a detention for a student during lunch or after school (if after school, parents are informed before detention occurs);
- Prevent student from attending, or participating in, any activity for which student is representing school; or
- Prevent student from attending or participating in any school activity that is not an essential school educational program.
- Support the student to comply with the dress code using loan items or removal of inappropriate items.

N.B. Students are reminded when they are in our school uniform outside of the school grounds that they are representatives of Elanora SHS and are required to behave and wear the uniform in an exemplary manner. Bringing the school into disrepute is dealt with under the Responsible Behaviour Plan For Students.

Junior school students (Years 7-9) wear the Junior School uniform and students in Years 10-12 wear the Senior School uniform.

Out of Uniform Procedure

- Prior to the commencement of the school day, any student out of uniform is required to report to the Wellbeing Hub.
- If the student has a note from a parent/caregiver with a valid reason, or comes to the Wellbeing Hub of their own accord before school begins, the student is provided with a loan item of clothing for the day and no consequence is applied.
- If the student is found in breach of the Uniform Policy and has not visited the Wellbeing Hub, the student is provided with a loan item of clothing for the day and a supervised lunch duty is issued.
- Failure to follow the Out of Uniform Procedure will result in referral to the Head of House for consequences in line with the school's Code of Conduct.

Under no circumstances can a person(s) who is not enrolled at Elanora SHS enter the school grounds wearing part of the Elanora SHS uniform. Any student providing an outsider with items of Elanora SHS uniform by which they seek to enter the school grounds will be dealt with as a major violation of the Elanora SHS Code of Conduct.
